City Rules Strike Town

On Thursday night of last week some Ryders from Dallas and other cities of the state struck town and proceeded to demonstrate their ignorance of how to act when away from home and in a small town. They ran their automobiles up and down the streets, honking continuously until called down by City Marshal Paul Wolfe. The next morning a big rattlesnake was discovered, menacing some little children in the street in front of the Palm cafe.

Inquiry developed that the reptile had been captured by the city innocents placed in a grip and brought to town. Upon arriving here and opening the grip they found the rattler apparently smothered. Then with a degree of carelessness or indifference that would not have been creditable to a ten year old child, one of them dumped the snake out in the street and left it. Marshal Wolfe again interviewed them and after a session in the Mayor's office one of them parted company with $12.70 as the price of their initiation.

They left, threatening to give Snyder some free advertising of an injurious nature. They were like most city jays, who have to be taught a lesson by the small town, obstreperous and self assertive, but in the end parting with the spendid and declaring that they would never again bless Snyder with their presence.

It is said that when they reached Herdleigh they poured out vials of wrath against Snyder and vowed to never again set foot in the capital City of Scurry county, but the gentle conciliation of City Marshal Wolfe will ring in their ears: "Young men, I have lived here for more than 30 years and we have gotten along nicely without you and we will continue to do so."

Mrs. J. L. Cunningham and son, David, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perkins, left Tuesday for their home at Palo Pinto.

Mr. W. A. Fuller, Powle Fuller and O. P. Thrane returned Sunday from a summer outing in Colorado.

Judge Arthur Yonge was a business visitor in Abilene this week.

Ed Kelly went to Abilene Tuesday evening.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Italy Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Catarrh Cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
